CARR-199 Daniel Dey House

3410 Uniontown Road

The land records indicate that 3410 Uniontown Road was built between 1842 and 1846. Daniel Dey bought the lot in 1842 from Jacob Appler, Sr., for $50. In 1846, the land deed from Dey to Jacob Morelock conveys the lot and house for $400. Later inhabitants of the house were Urith Roop (see photograph on page 54) and George Routson. Melvin Routson, who lived here during the early twentieth century, represented the county in the Maryland House of Delegates for a number of years. From the exterior, the house appears to be a log structure because of its proportions and fenestration. The door and window frames provide the only ornamental relief from the flat, vertical surface of the German siding exterior. The mid-nineteenth century window frame design is one that occurs on several other Uniontown buildings, such as 3348 Uniontown Road, and shows the Victorian period's inclination to embellish the straight line. However, the door frame on this house, with its peaked gable and dentil cornice, appears out-of-place on this structure and probably dates from a twentieth century remodeling.
